Register by September 11th and receive $50 off trip price! Kids 12-under ski FREE!

Steamboat Springs, Colorado is known for its champagne powder and has been a favorite destination for GSU snow lovers since 1980. It offers something for everyone-from the gentle slopes for beginners to the challenging runs for experts -skiers and boarders of all interests and abilities find just what they are looking for amid the awesome scenery of this Rocky Mountain resort.

Your ski package includes direct round-trip airfare via Southwest Airlines, chartered bus transportation between Denver and the resort, six nights accommodations at The Lodge Steamboat Condominiums, a group social with Italian Dinner, and four day lift ticket. Our condos - located at the base of Mt. Warner, a short walk from the gondola - will accommodate 6 or 8 persons. Condos typically feature a sleeper sofa, 2 twin beds in a single bedroom, a master bedroom, and 2 baths with a fully equipped kitchen, gas fireplace, cable TV, outdoor heated pool, outdoor hot tubs with sauna and changing room, as well as a private scheduled guest shuttle. Never-ever beginner ski/snowboard lessons will be available for $25 the first day with resort coupon. Please check out the FAQ for this trip regarding many common questions.

Please note that this is a group trip with a group price set to offer GSU students the best possible package at the lowest cost. We seek to accommodate all participants but cannot guarantee airplane seating assignments or condo arrangements unless an extra bed space is bought out. Possible increase in airfare may be passed along to participant. If traveling from the Atlanta area, airfare must be purchased through trip package.

Pre-trip meeting Monday, Nov. 9, 6 - 7 p.m. at the Student Rec Center.
Room 215. Please mark your calendar to attend this (optional) meeting to choose condmates!

PAYMENT SCHEDULE: $200 non-refundable deposit due before Oct. 2, 2015
