GOAL

To capture unique and creative photographs to be used in future Georgia State University Recreational Services marketing materials to gain exposure for the Sport Club program.

WHO MAY ENTER

Contest is open to all active Sport Clubs.

HOW TO ENTER

Submit photograph(s), date of photograph(s), name(s) of individual(s) in each photograph, the location of each photograph (city, state), name of competition (if applicable), and which category you are submitting your photograph for.

The categories for entries are: (1) Best Team Photograph, (2) Best Action Photograph, and, (3) Most Creative Photograph. There is no limit on the number of entries per sport club. Each entry must comply with the following requirements:

Photographs must be in digital format. Only online entries will be eligible. No print or film submissions will be accepted for entry into this contest. All digital files must be at least 1 megabyte, must be in JPEG or JPG format.

For spring semester contests, photographs must have been taken between December 1st – April 30th. For fall semester contests, photographs must have been taken between May 1st and November 30th. Also, the submitted photo must have not previously won an award in the Sport Clubs Photo Contest.

Only minor dodging, cropping, burning and/or color correction is acceptable. Any major changes to the original photograph will render the photograph ineligible for a prize.

The entries in each category will be judged separately. All entries must be submitted via e-mail to compsports@gsu.edu and received by December 1st for fall contests and May 1st for spring contests.

JUDGING

All eligible entries will be judged on the following criteria: (1) originality, (2) visual impact, and (3) effectiveness in portraying the “sport club experience.”

CONTEST PRIZES

The winner in each category will receive an added allocation to their budget for the following semester. The prize will be determined on a semester-by-semester basis based on the Sport Club budget. A club is eligible to win multiple categories.

WINNER’S LIST

The winning photos will be posted on the LCD screens throughout the Student Recreation Center.
